

Rules of the Makawao Polo Club.

1. That the officers shall be a President, Captain, Secretary, Treasurer, and the two latter offices may be held by one person.

2. That the Committee shall consist of the officers, who shall be elected yearly.

3. That the revised rules of the Hurlingham Club, shall be adopted by this Club.

4. Members must be elected at a meeting of the Club, after having been proposed and seconded by members. Such election to be by ballot. One black ball in five to exclude. Five members shall be a quorum.

5. The entrance fee shall be $5.

6. There shall be a club game on the first and third Saturday in every month. Play to begin at 3 p.m.

HURLINGHAM CLUB RULES.

1. The height of the ponies must not exceed 14 hands, and no ponies showing vice are to be allowed in the game.

2. The goals to be not less than 250 yards apart, and each goal to be 8 yards wide.

3. The size of the balls to be three inches in diameter.

4. Each side shall nominate an umpire, unless it be mutually agreed to play with one instead of two, and his or their decision shall be final. In important matches, in addition to the umpires, a referee may be appointed, whose decision shall be final.

5. In all matches for cups or prizes the number of players contending to be limited to four a side.

6. The duration of games in matches shall be one hour and ten minutes, an interval of five minutes between each twenty minutes of play being deducted from the above.

7. In cup competitions, the game, in case of a tie, must be played on till one side obtains a goal.

8. The side that makes most goals wins the game.

9. Each side to take up its position behind its own goal posts, and on the flag being dropped the game commences; the gallop or charge to take place once only—at the commencement of the match. On other occasions the ball is to be thrown in the middle by an umpire, or by the manager.

10. If a ball is hit above the top of the goal posts, but in the opinion of the umpire through it, it shall be considered a goal.

11. If the ball be hit behind the back line by one of the opposite side, it shall be hit off by one of the side whose line it is, from a spot as near as possible to where it crossed the line. None of the attacking line shall be within thirty yards of the back line until the ball is hit off. If, however, the ball be hit behind the back by one of the players whose line it is, they shall hit it off as near as possible to where it crossed the line, and all the defending line shall remain behind the line until the ball is hit off, the attacking side being free to place themselves as they choose.

12. When the ball is hit out of bounds, it must be thrown into the playground by the umpire.

13. A player may ride out an antagonist or interpose his pony before his antagonist, so as to prevent the latter reaching the ball, but he may not cross another player in possession of the ball, excepting at such a distance as to avoid all risk of a collision.

14. No player who is off side shall hit the ball, or shall in any way prevent the opposite side from reaching or hitting the ball.

DEFINITION OF OFF SIDE.

A player is off side when, at the time of the ball being hit, he has no one of the opposite side between him and the adversary's goal line, or behind that goal line, and he is neither in possession of the ball nor behind one of his own side who is in possession of the ball. The position of the players is to be considered at the time the ball was last hit, i.e., a player, if on side when the ball was last hit, remains on side until it is hit again.

15. In case of a foul (viz.: infringement of Rules 13, 14 and 15) the umpire shall stop the game, and the side that has been fouled may claim either of the following penalties:

(a) A free hit from where the ball was when the foul took place, none of the opposing side to be within ten yards of the ball.

(b) That the side which caused the foul take the ball back, and hit it off from behind their own goal line.

16. Ends shall be changed after every goal, or if no goal have been obtained, after half time. The ball must go over and clear of the line to be out, or to score a goal. If the ball be damaged, the umpire must stop the game, and throw in a new ball at the place where it was broken, and at right angles to the length of the ground.

17. Should a player's stick be broken, he must ride to the place where sticks are kept and take one. On no account is a stick to be brought to him.

18. In the event of a stick being dropped, the player must pick it up himself. No dismounted player is allowed to hit the ball.

19. No persons allowed within the arena—players, umpires and referee excepted.

BY-LAWS.

1. In matches for cups or prizes the ponies must be kept fit the property of the club or regiment contending.

2. No sticks with rowels allowed except on special occasions when sanctioned by the committee.

3. Each pony to be passed under the 14 hand standard by the manager, or by one of the polo committee. A book to be kept by the manager, in which the height of all ponies belonging to members is to be entered. A pony six years old or aged, after having been passed, is not required to go under the standard again.

4. Not more than five players on each side are allowed to play; the members arriving first at the pavilion to be allowed precedence.

PERSONALS.

ILLUSTRIOUS BOOK AGENTS.

Mark Twain and Bret Harte had their first association with literature as humble canvassers.

James G. Blaine began life as a book agent in Washington, Pa., selling a "Life of Henry Clay."

The poet Longfellow was a book agent before his verses began to attract the attention of the public.

Jay Gould made his first public money peddling books in the rural districts of Central New York when a mere boy.

Rutherford B. Hayes footed it all over Southern Ohio when a mere lad getting subscriptions for Baxter's "Suffit's Rest."

Daniel Webster paid his second year's tuition at Dartmouth by acting as local agent in Merrimack county, N. H., for De Tocqueville's "America."

When Napoleon Bonaparte was a Lieutenant in the army and unemployed at Paris, he canvassed a suburban Parisan arrondissement for a work entitled "L'Histoire de la Revolution."

General Grant, after his resignation from the army and before his ventures on the Dent farm, took part of the territory of a general agent of Putnam's to dispose of Irving's "Columbus."

George Washington, while surveying Fairfax county, in his youth, canvassed for Rydell's "American Savoys: How he May be Tamed by the Weapons of Civilization," and sold over 200 copies in Alexandria, Virginia.

Bismarck, when at Heidelberg, during the winter vacation, having his allowance cut short by his father, the baron, canvassed for Blumenbach's "Aufgeschichtete Wesseling in der Speigeldiele," and made enough to pay for his beer and tobacco.

This is a suggestive hint as to the disciplinary value of the profession of book and periodical canvassing. We see above the eminence to which it leads, though these examples afford hardly a hint as to its general public utility.
